2 General Rules and Regulations

Entries are accepted for all departments (except Green Thumb and Cookies) on September 12th and 13th, 1:00 – 5:00 pm. Green Thumb ONLY, Wednesday, September 16th, 10:00 am – 7:00 pm and King Arthur Cookie Contest on Saturday, September 26th by 12:45 pm at the fairground office building. Judging for the cookie contest will be at 1:00 in the Exhibition Hall.

Refresh of fruits and vegetables in Green Thumb, with judging, Thursday, September 24th, 10:00 am – 1:00 pm.

Premiums will not be paid on articles removed from the Fair before it closes UNLESS special approval of the superintendent of the department has been given.

All articles must be entered in the name of the owner. Dairy products, fruits, grain, and vegetables must have been made or raised by the exhibitor thereof. Descriptive labels, in accordance with the entries, can be secured from the superintendents who shall attach them to the articles and allow them to remain during the Fair.

No exhibitor shall compete against himself either directly or indirectly, and any person entering borrowed articles, vegetables, or other products, or making fraudulent representations in reference to any exhibit will forfeit all premiums which may have been awarded. The Association also reserves the right to accept or reject any entry made for any premium offered and no premium will be paid unless all requirements are fulfilled. Premiums earned will be paid by check and those checks will be mailed to the exhibitor no later than November 1st of the current year. Any check not cashed within 60 days of the issue date will be considered a donation to the Fair Association

The Association will employ a watchman on the grounds at night and exercise due care, but they will assume no responsibility for any loss or damage from any cause that may occur to any animal or article exhibition, and upon this condition only are entries received.

Removal of entries will be Tuesday, September 29th, 2:00 – 6:00 pm. Notify your Superintendent to arrange pick up ahead of time if you can't come during these times, or call the office at 603-332-6585.

3 Girl Scouts

3.1 Rules for Girl Scouts

The members exhibiting must have been registered as a Girl Scout when the project was completed. Although the Association does exercise as much care as possible, we assume no responsibility for loss or damage, and exhibits are entered at the member's risk. Any exhibits left after the pick-up date and time will be disposed of unless previous accommodations have been made.

Judges look for creativity, quality, skill, and age level.

We retain the right to move items to the most appropriate classes.

5 Arts and Crafts

5.1 Rules for Crafts

Please Note: In Classes where there is no competition, 1/2 premium will be paid only if the entry merits judging.

All handiwork must have been completed by the exhibitor since the previous fair. Individuals may enter more than one item per class but will be judged on only one. Premiums are subject to change without notice.

Standards of judging arts and crafts will be based on general appearance, beauty of design, workmanship, and usefulness of articles. Judges' decisions are final.

Reasonable care will be taken with the articles on exhibition. The Association is not responsible for damaged, lost, or stolen items.

Except for items sold, articles removed from the display area prior to closing will forfeit any earned premium.

The following definitions will be used:

- Professional – One who teaches, accepts commissions and sells.
- Amateur – One who participates as a hobby, has never given lessons, and sells occasionally.
- Senior – Person aged 60 and over.
- Junior – Between the ages of 13 and 18 years of age.
- Children – Under 12 years of age.

To ensure fairness to all exhibitors, there will be a limit of one special award per entry:

- Francis Garland Memorial Award
- Judges Choice Award
- Woodworking Award
- DNA Printer's Surprise Award for Best Fall Article
- Joel Sherburne Ambassador Award
- Flora Sherburne Award
- The Great Pumpkin Award – pumpkins awarded to all children who enter items

5.28 Fine Woodworking – Professional

5.28.1 Rules for Fine Woodworking

Wood: No items created from kits are acceptable. All wooden parts are to have been cut, shaped, sanded, finished, etc. by the entrant. Exception is made for minor turned parts such as dowels, knobs, etc.

Fasteners: In general, fasteners should not be visible. This is particularly true for nails. Screws for hinges, locks, and other typically metal parts are allowed. For reproductions and period pieces, cut nails may be visible as style allows/requires.

Techniques: Entries should display average joinery techniques with fine joint lines and tight joints. Typically, joints such as dovetails, mortises, thru Tenon, and bridal joints are used.

Finish: All items should be fully finished in accordance with the styles of each piece. All surfaces should be smooth and pleasant to touch. Exceptions are made for work that should show hand tooling as Early American, or for artistic purposes. No rough edges or unfinished pieces are accepted.

To ensure fairness to all exhibitors, there will be a limit to one special award per entry:

- Francis Garland Memorial Award
- Judges Choices Award
- Woodworking Award
- DNA Printer's Surprise Award for Best Fall Article
- Joel Sherburne Ambassador Award
- Flora Sherburne Ambassador Award
- The Great Pumpkin Award – pumpkins awarded to all children who enter items

7 Photography

7.1 Rules for Photography

Amateurs only.

All photos must be 8x10, matted in an 11x14 matte, with no foam backing. Photos should not be framed.

Judging classes: Child-under age 12, Junior-13-18, Adult-19-59, Senior-60 and over.

Awards are made in accordance with entries; therefore, exhibitors should take care to have articles entered correctly.

Black and White photos should be entered under black and white category only.

Photographs will be judged on composition, creativity, degree of difficulty, presentation (matte), how well the photo fits the category and how well the subject fits the format chosen.

Please refrain from using Photoshop for anything more than what would be done when using traditional printing methods.

Only one entry per class per entrant.

Photographs will not be judged if they do not fit the category.

Special Award for best senior, adult and junior.

The Granite State Fair uses every reasonable means to protect all property on exhibit but will not be responsible for any damage or loss. Photos not picked up by 5 pm on the date indicated will be left at the fair office unless other arrangements have been made.

Please Note: In Classes where there is no competition, 1/2 premium will be paid only if the entry merits judging.

7.2.19 Altered Images - Division Number: #0518

Images that go beyond standard photo editing techniques such as color correction, cropping or basic retouching. Entries in this category must involve significant manipulation as a core part of the creative process. This includes but is not limited to:

- Addition or removal of major elements
- Hand painted
- Mixed media
- Compositing multiple images or visual sources
- Applying substantial distortions or transformations
- Introducing visual components that were not present in the original capture

Simple enhancements or technical corrections do not qualify as “altered images”. Include a small image of the original.
